Declaration by the author:

By entering your stories for this project, you declare:

- that you own the copyright on your story, images and other media; and have permission to mention any other people, places or organisations
- RaPAL may edit and publish your story in a learner voice publication, on our websites, in our journals, newsletters and other promotional and dissemination media.

You also agree to the story being published under Creative Commons licence (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 DEED) [link below]. In general terms, this means:

- Other people may share and re-publish your story; they also must credit you as the author of your work. But they are not allowed to make any money out of it.
- Educational organisations may share your work as learning resources for other students.

If you are happy with this, please sign below to submit your work.
